- Provide you with goods or services you are receiving or utilising as offered by the Club and to offer and administer any benefits you subsequently become entitled to in relation to that product or service;
- Share your information with companies in which the Club has an ownership interest for the purpose of them marketing their products to you;
- Analyse website usage;
- Respond to your submissions, questions, comments, requests and complaints;
- Conduct our internal business and management processes, for example accounting or auditing purposes; and
- For any other purposes that would reasonably be expected by you.

Use and Disclosure

The Club will only use and/or disclose your personal information for the purpose for which you have provided it or they have been provided to us by others, e.g. for application of club membership or to gain entry to the Club premises as a visitor or guest or for other purposes as permitted by the Privacy Act or that are set out in this Privacy Policy or for which you consent.

When or before the Club collects personal information, the Club will take reasonable steps to inform the individual providing the information of directly or indirectly:

- The purposes for which the information is collected;
- Where applicable, any law that requires the particular information to be collected, and
- The main consequences for the user if all or part of the information is not provided.

From time to time, you may be able to visit the Club website or deal with us anonymously or by pseudonym. However, please be aware that, if you do not provide us with certain personal information that we require, we may not be able to provide you with the products and/or services that you seek.

For example, the Club will be unable to allow you to join the Club or to be a temporary member, unless you have provided us with the required personal information. The Club will also be unable to provide you with certain goods and services unless you have first provided the Club with the required personal information.

The Club will not use your personal information for any other purpose, nor will we disclose it, unless we have your consent or in other circumstances where such use or disclosure is permitted under the Privacy Act.

The Club may disclose your information to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These third parties may include (but are not limited to):

- Employees, third party service and content providers, dealers and agents, contractors and advisors and suppliers who assist the Club in managing our business, supply certain products to our business or operating our website, for example, business support services, payment processors, website hosting service providers, cloud storage providers etc;
- Law enforcement bodies to assist in their functions, courts of law or as otherwise required or authorised by law;
- Regulatory or government bodies for the purposes of resolving customer complaints or conducting investigations.

Marketing and Promotional Materials

The Club may use your personal information for the purposes of marketing our services/products or to inform you of new services, promotions or events that we believe you may be interested in. For example, from time to time, the Club may wish to carry out a voluntary survey for feedback. Before collecting survey results, the Club will advise you of the purpose of the survey e.g. to gain information for the club to improve services etc.

Visitors and Guests

Under the Registered Clubs Act, patrons visiting the Club must produce a recognised form of identification i.e. passport, driver's license or proof of age card to gain entry to the premises. The Club uses terminals to gather this information and to protect the data collected i.e. addresses of patrons. Scanning of licences is optional and, if preferred, use of manual sign-in, via the terminals is available for patrons once the form of identification has been sighted by an authorised officer of the Club.

Surveillance of Venues

The Club is subject to video and at times audio surveillance for security reasons. Details of suspected or actual illegal and/or undesirable activities on our premises may be shared with other clubs, law enforcement and regulatory bodies such as the Office of Liquor, Gaming and Racing and the Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority.

Security

Your personal information is held securely in our computer system and, where your personal information has been provided in hard copy format, this personal information is either destroyed, held securely on a Club site, held securely within the control of our Sub-Club representatives or held securely in off-site storage.

Storage

Personal information is stored and archived for a period of seven (7) years. This includes information about non-members and internet site transmission logs.

Correction

The Club relies on the information provided by members to be accurate and current. The Club takes reasonable steps in the circumstances to ensure that the personal information it collects, uses or discloses is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

If you believe the personal information we hold on you is incorrect, please advise us in writing by sending your letter or email to the Privacy Officer using the details below and informing us of the correct information. We will take reasonable steps to correct Club records appropriately and within a reasonable time frame, except where the Privacy Act prohibits it or if there is an exception under law where we may refuse your correction request.

Access

The Privacy Act allows individuals to access and alter records containing their personal information. If you wish to access the personal information the Club holds on you please provide a written request to the Privacy Officer using the details below. The Club will provide you access to your information except where the Privacy Act prohibits it or if there are exceptions under law where we may refuse your request for access.

To change your name on the membership database, supporting documentation from a government source is required. Change of addresses can be done by completing a "Change of Address" form, by letter or by use of the internet.

Complaints

If you wish to make a complaint about the Club's use of your personal information, please put your complaint in writing, providing as much detail as possible, and forward it by letter or email to the Privacy Officer using the details below. The Privacy Officer, or another representative of the Club, will investigate the complaint and will provide you with a written response within a reasonable time following the completion of the investigation.

Cross Border Disclosure

Occasionally, we may disclose personal information to overseas recipients in the course of our business.

Please be aware that the privacy laws in other countries might not be the same as in Australia. However, where we do disclose your personal information to overseas third parties, we will take such steps as are reasonable to ensure that your personal information is handled in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Important Notice

By providing us with your personal information or otherwise using our products, services or website, you consent to the disclosure of your personal information to these overseas recipients. By consenting to this overseas disclosure, you acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) The Club will not be accountable under the Privacy Act for any breach of your privacy by an overseas recipient; and
- (b) You will not be able to seek redress from the Club under the Privacy Act for any breach of your privacy by an overseas recipient.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

The Club reserves the right to make changes to this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will publish any changes on the Club website at www.ulladullaexservos.com.au/about/reports-notice. By continuing to use our products, services and website or by continuing to provide us with your personal information after these changes have been published, you confirm your acceptance of these changes.
